

Narrative Organizer

Title: _____

Audience (To whom are you writing?): _____

Message/Theme: _____

Introduction (exposition):

- Introduction of characters - by using dialogue and description (adjectives, adverbs, vivid verbs)
- Introduction of setting - by using sensory details (metaphors and similes)
- Establish a mood
- Hint to problem/significant event by using emotion or feeling

Body (rising action, climax, falling action):

- Development and elaboration of problem or tension - the plot thickens, the characters are strengthened
- Develop plot by using dialogue, description (adjectives, adverbs, vivid verbs) and sensory details (metaphors and similes)
- Vary sentence structure

Conclusion (resolution):

- Develop resolution by using dialogue, description (adjectives, adverbs, vivid verbs) and sensory details (metaphors and similes)
- Solve the problem, wrap up, connect back to beginning
- Connect back to theme